But they aren't going to ruin the plot or the emotional heft of the story. In fact, I think knowing these things ahead of time will make your experience with Cecil Castellucci's First Day on Earth more powerful. It's a short book — a mere 150 pages — and some of the chapters are simply one sentence long.

First day on Earth by Cecil Castellucci - STACKED

First Day On Earth is 150 pages with very short chapters. I think, however, that even though it's a quick read, one should not underestimate the depth of First Day On Earth by Cecil Castellucci . I think lonely, depressed teenagers will see themselves in Mal, even if they haven't been abducted by aliens, and I hope that, in turn, they will see optimism and a way through that dark time.

Reading Teen: First Day on Earth by Cecil Castellucci

First Day On Earth is a short read; but it's a powerful one. A mere 148 pages, it packs in such strength, and beauty and rawness. I think so many can relate to that feeling of not belonging, and the author captures it perfectly here. I love Cecil Castellucci's writing style.
